FOUR SOLUTIONS OF IRISH PUZZLE

Writer Holds Britain Will Never Grant Absolute Independence

N. E. A. Staff Correspondent
BELFAST, Ireland, Oct. 27.—The Irish political situation is a great puzzle and I haven't met anybody—English or Irishman—who has a definite idea how it is going to be solved. There are at least four possible solutions:

1. A republic.
2. Dominion home rule.
3. Separate Home Rule for Ulster and separate Home Rule for the rest of Ireland.
4. Subsidy the island with British soldiers and continue the present policy.

Number 4 is the least likely. The British thought on the subject is agreed present conditions in Ireland are intolerable and that Britain must shortly announce a new policy.

WONT GRANT INDEPENDENCE.
It may be safely said Britain will not voluntarily permit Ireland to sever connection with the empire and establish a republic.

Here enters the time-worn argument of war strategy. It is this, repeated to me by a high British officer in Ireland:

For her own peace and safety, Great Britain doesn't dare permit the establishment of an unfriendly government at her very door. In the event of war, Ireland might permit her ports to be used as naval bases to our enemies and England, Scotland and Wales could be invaded from Ireland. If Ireland were 2000 miles from England, I believe our government would give her anything she wanted and be jolly well glad to be rid of her. For hundreds of years she has given us nothing but trouble.

Dominion home rule for Ireland would mean the Irish people would have a parliament and premier and run their own affairs, with the same freedom Canada or Australia enjoy. But blocking this is Ulster's threat that she will bring on civil war before she will join in a government with the rest of Ireland. Moreover, British statesmen know that once complete Dominion home rule is given Ireland it would take only the passage of an act by the Irish parliament to sever all connection with the empire.

WOULD VOTE FOR SEPARATION.
It is a foregone conclusion if Dominion home rule is put into effect it will be only a very short time until the Irish parliament will declare for complete separation.

Lloyd George's last proposal, a parliament for Catholic Ireland and another for Protestant Ulster, is ridiculed throughout all the Catholic counties. In Ulster, the overwhelming sentiment is in favor of sticking with Britain.

Meanwhile, as British statesmen consider the problem, the general slaughter of soldiers, constables and civilians continues.

MANY EXPRESS WORKERS INDICTED FOR THEFTS

MADISON, Ga., Oct. 29.—Federal grand jury indictments were reported here charging 64 express messengers, express agents, railroad conductors and others with a general conspiracy to steal and sell express shipments. The American Railway Express company presented evidence to the jury that $1,015,722 in goods moving by express through southern states during the first six months of this year had been stolen. It is also alleged that operations started several years ago and that furs, silk goods, hardware and food products had vanished in wholesale amounts.

According to accounts given the grand jury, messengers changed destination tags on goods in transit and reconsigned them to one of the conspirators, destroying the original shipping records.

DALRYMPLE MAY RECEIVE TARIFF COMMISSION JOB

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Resignation of Major A. D. Dalrymple, central states federal prohibition agent, announced in Washington, may be followed by his appointment as a member of the tariff commission, according to reports here last night. His successor has not been selected, the major said. Major Dalrymple said he had handed in his resignation in September but had heard nothing from Washington. Major Dalrymple sprang into national prominence early this year as a result of the "rum rebellion" in Iron county, Michigan.

YOU MUST SEE THIS GREATEST OF ALL GREAT PICTURES

"MID-CHANNEL"

"MID-CHANNEL" is a master play from the hand of a master dramatist.

"MID-CHANNEL" is the sensational stage play in which Ethel Barrymore achieved a magnificent dramatic triumph at the Empire theater, New York.

It is the play which critics have pronounced "the ultra smart of the fine pictures"—"the production extraordinary"—"the master picture of the season."

If you have read the story, you will be thrilled by the elaborate presentation, the wondrously drawn characterizations, the scenes, settings, investiture and atmosphere.

Played by a chosen cast of supreme excellence, it brings to the screen unquestionably one of the greatest pictures in years and the finest picture in which Clara Kimball Young has ever appeared.

TEACHER LEADING CLASS FALLS DOWN MINE SHAFT

PEEKSKILL, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Three men in a small shaft, guided by torch light paddled their way last night through the labyrinth of "The Mantle" an abandoned waterlogged copper mine near here, searching for the body of Prof. H. C. Schmidt, who stumbled and fell down the 276-foot shaft.

Schmidt, a geologist, with a class of ten Hackley school students, was studying peculiar formation about the mine. Holding a lantern over his head to light the way, he precipitated the party through a tunnel which leads to the mouth of the shaft. The students saw the lantern flying in the air, heard a gasp, a cry for help, then a fall-away splash.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT SUES PAPER FOR LIBEL

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Franklin D. Roosevelt Thursday filed papers in a suit for $500,000 against John R. Rathbone, editor and publisher of the Providence Journal, and Scott C. Bone and Edward B. Clark, manager and assistant manager of publicity for the Republican national committee. Mr. Roosevelt charges the defendants with circulating false and defamatory libel.

An editorial in the Providence Journal charged Mr. Roosevelt had embezzled or destroyed navy department records and that he had sought personally to return to the ships of the navy, men convicted of various crimes, he charged. Mr. Roosevelt made public denial of the charges and then Mr. Rathbone sent him a letter outlining specific cases referred to in the editorial. The letter also was published in the Providence Journal.

KING GEORGE SUES FIRM ON MUNITION CONTRACT

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—King George V. of Great Britain, is the plaintiff in a suit filed here against the Remington Arms company, Inc., for an accounting in connection with alleged overcharges resulting from munition contracts given the Remington Arms company by the British government in 1912.

The plaintiff charges that the defendants were engaged by the Remington company to purchase machinery for use in the manufacture of 2,000,000 rifles contracted for by the British government. It is alleged by the plaintiff that the supplies were delivered at higher prices than the actual value but the exact extent has not been determined.

Doctors Stand Amazed at Power of Bon-Opto to Make Weak Eyes Strong--According to Dr. Lewis Guarantee to Strengthen Eyesight 50% in One Week's Time in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Philadelphia, Pa. Victims of eye strain and other eye weaknesses, and those who wear glasses, will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope and help for them. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored by this remarkable prescription and many who once wore glasses say they have thrown them away. One man says, after using it, "I was almost blind. I could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without my glasses and I feel like a new man. At night they would pain dreadfully. Now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription 15 days everything came clear. I can read fine print without glasses. Another who used it says: 'I was bothered with eye strain caused by overworked, tired eyes which induced severe headaches. I have worn glasses for several years both for distance and work, and without them I could not read my own name on an envelope or the type writing on the mail, before me, I can do both now and have discarded my long distance glasses altogether. I can count the fluttering leaves on the trees across the street now, which for several years have looked like a dim green blur to me. I cannot express my joy at what it has done for me.'"

It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by the use of this prescription. Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and let it dissolve. With the liquid bath, the eyes two or four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation and redness will quickly disappear. If your eyes are even a little it is your duty to take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind men have saved their sight if they had cared for their eyes in time.

A NOTE. Another prominent physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Yes, the Bon-Opto prescription is truly a wonderful eye remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. I have used it very successfully in my own practice on patients whose eyes were strained through overwork of misfit glasses. I can highly recommend it in case of weak, watery, itching, smarting, itching, burning eyes, red, blurred vision or for eyes inflamed from exposure to smoke, sun, dust or wind. It is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." Bon-Opto, referred to above, is not a patent medicine or a secret remedy. It is an ethical preparation, its formula is printed on the package. The manufacturing company guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good druggist and is sold at the lowest price in the leading druggists, including A. R. McIntyre.

TEN MORE REASONS WHY TAXES ARE HIGHER

1. Because Democratic office holders, though promising economy, have "found it necessary" to have a larger number of deputies and employees to accomplish the same amount of work previously accomplished by a smaller number directed by Republican officials.
2. Because "overhead" expense in road work has been actually greater at times than the amount expended for road construction itself.
3. Because state and county officials have added many automobiles to the public property list, charging upkeep and gasoline for these cars to the taxpayers.
4. Because the Democratic assessment officials have raised the valuation of property (for taxation purposes) 33 per cent more than in 1916, the last year of Republican control.
5. Because the Democratic state officials, after expending millions of dollars raised by road bond sales—which must be paid later by the people of Utah—have called upon taxpayers for increased state road taxes and for increased municipal taxes to build state highways through the cities. The increase in state road tax for Weber county was from one mill in 1916 to two mills in 1920—or exactly 100 per cent.
6. Because tax levies have gone up at the same time assessments were "boosted" despite the promise of the Democrats, both in 1916 and 1918, that they would reduce taxes.
7. Because of reckless, extravagant expenditure of public funds without the necessary control of the public's business to assure a full dollar's value for every dollar spent.
8. Because of the failure of the Democratic administration to put into effect the necessary economies to offset raises in material and labor costs.
9. Because the Democratic officials have not provided efficiency in management of public offices.
10. Because the Democrats are in control.

TAKE YOUR TAX NOTICE TO THE POLLS ELECTION DAY, NEXT TUESDAY

TO THE VOTERS OF THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT. Be Careful in Marking Your Ballot.

There is no question but that a large majority of the voters in this district, irrespective of party affiliation, are satisfied with the splendid record of fair, prompt and economical performance of duty made by Judge Agee and Judge Pratt, and therefore intend to vote for them. The only possible danger of their defeat is that such voters may fail to properly mark their ballots.

Republicans who want to vote for Judge Agee and Judge Pratt, who mark in the circle above the Republican ticket, SHOULD NOT FAIL TO DRAW A LINE THROUGH THE NAMES OF HOWELL AND KIMBALL ON THE REPUBLICAN TICKET and then MARK IN THE SQUARE AFTER THE NAMES OF AGEE AND PRATT ON THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

As the Socialist and Farmer-Labor parties have no candidates for judges, any one voting the Socialist or Farmer-Labor ticket who wants to vote for Judge Agee and Judge Pratt, needs to do, is to mark an X in the squares after their names on the Democratic ticket.

BE CAREFUL HOW YOU MARK YOUR BALLOT. FRANK FRANCIS, Chairman Democratic Judicial Committee.
